Anzor Zurhaev - President

Anzor Zurhaev founded Crimson IT (CIT) in September of 2011 when he recognized the need for enterprise level IT support for medium-sized commercial real estate companies in Los Angeles. In less than three years Mr. Zurhaev has grown Crimson IT to be a dominant force in managed IT support in the Los Angeles commercial real estate market. CIT has also expanded to support non-profits headquartered in Los Angeles - including Cotsen Foundation, Weingart Center for the Homeless and Project Angel Food.

Mr. Zurhaev is recognized in the industry for his ability to turn IT operations around when clients are challenged by growth, business development or IT operations. He is an expert in the identification, selection and deployment of technologies to help companies and organizations achieve their goals and overall vision.

Mr. Zurhaev has over 20 years of experience managing complex IT environments that stretched across the globe with 1,400 servers and 10,000 worldwide users. He has been in an IT executive leadership role for a few well-recognized companies - including Dolby Laboratories, MPG Office Trust and CBRE.

Above all else, CIT believes in employing local talent, donating its engineering resources to local non-profits and resonating Mr. Zurhaev's philosophy of doing good for its own sake.

Yekaterina Borukhova – Treasurer, CFO

For almost two decades, Katerina Borukhova has distinguished herself in the finance industry as a dynamic and results-driven leader.

She has contributed to high-performance teams at firms such as Morgan Stanley, T. Rowe Price and Legg Mason. In 2012, she co-founded the Los Angeles-based company Crimson IT and has since excelled in her role as CFO, overseeing all financial reporting, budgeting and accounting operations while driving profits and growth. Her day-to-day management of all treasury-related functions is governed by skillful attention to detail and an innate perfectionism, helping to position Crimson IT at the forefront of the IT support field.

Although gifted with numbers – Ms. Borukhova has processed over $50M in financial transactions – she also possesses the unique capacity to connect with a culturally and geographically diverse client base, earning her reputation as a resourceful collaborator. She effortlessly balances her passion for success in commercial real estate with a rigorous commitment to Crimson IT's humanitarian values as a family-owned business.
